

NRO at the Internet Governance Forum

Paul Rendek
Head of External Relations and Communications

Internet Governance Forum 2010

- Held in Vilnius, Lithuania, 14-17 September
- Roughly 1800 attendees from 107 countries
- 98 workshops
- Main sessions on
 - Critical Internet Resources
 - Development
 - Access and Diversity
 - Security, Openness and Privacy
 - Cloud Computing

NRO Workshops: IPv6 Around The World

- IPv6 deployment and initiatives from Europe, Asia, the Middle East, Africa and South America:
 - go6.si initiative from Slovenia
 - NIC.br program in Brazil
 - German government IPv6 adoption
- Main points:
 - “The business case for IPv6 is business continuity”
 - “Government a key pusher of technological innovation”

NRO Workshops: Enhancing Transparency

- Enhancing Transparency in Internet Governance
 - Speakers from business, government, civil society
 - Roundtable discussion of benefits of transparency and where each sector can improve
- Main points:
 - “Visibility is just the first step; understanding is just as important”
 - “We still need to effectively define Internet governance”
 - “Law enforcement, government and industry need to work together”

NRO Workshops: Enhancing Transparency

- Plans for further work on this subject
 - Follow-up events at national/regional IGF events
 - EuroDIG etc.
 - Follow-up workshop at IGF 2011 in Nairobi, Kenya

Other NRO involvement

- RIR representatives took part in workshops on:
 - RPKI (Internet resource certification)
 - Council of Europe sessions
 - Cross-border law enforcement issues
 - Applying a code of good practice on information, participation and transparency
 - Internet issues in the developing world
- NRO representatives spoke in the main session on Critical Internet Resources about IPv6 adoption

Some URLs

- Official workshop reports
 - IPv6 Around The World: Surveying the Current and Future Deployment of IPv6
<http://www.intgovforum.org/cms/component/chronocontact/?chronoformname=WSProposalsReports2010View&wspid=87>
 - Enhancing Transparency in Internet Governance
<http://www.intgovforum.org/cms/component/chronocontact/?chronoformname=WSProposalsReports2010View&wspid=88>

Questions?

